MANDATE. SALE MANAGEMENT.

In order to advance the commercialization process, once the sales strategy has been defined and the company valued, the firm must expressly authorize the consultant team to represent it in the search and identification of potential interested buyers.

As a consequence, Good Deal offers an important contacts network to achieve the sale.

In this case, our professional services will cover the assistance to the Company in the negotiation until its end.

Accompaniment during due diligence process is included as well as in negotiation with potential buyers.

An exhaustive analysis will be exposed in order to let shareholders and managers take an optimal decision.

Legal specialized assistance will be offered in order to ensure a correct development in the operation.

The link between the company and the consultant team will be formally expressed in a contract, specifying mandate's scope and other clauses that will govern the actions during sale process.
